DRINKWARE WITH PERSONALITY

BE THE TREND SETTER

Poise, a silent confidence, that je ne sais quoi! Always one step ahead and never missing a beat. This is the Trend Setter, the one everyone is waiting on to make the next big move!

Speaking of the next big move... The Trend Setter lid can be upgraded to display our BrandPatches and BrandShields, an offering entirely unique to Ora drinkware. Take it a step further and embed an NFC chip under the upgraded lid, providing a physical action that leads to a digital experience.

One unique silhouette, two different volume capacities and a variety of avant-garde finishes, textures and colors.

It's bold, it's beautiful, and it's bound to turn heads.

This is the Trend Setter.

QUENCH YOUR THIRST

Gaspingly gorgeous silhouettes paired with purposefully premium branding. We're bringing some of our most innovative branding solutions to a vessel near you!

Enhance Ora drinkware with Reflection Laser. This reveals an undercoat that matches the accent color of select Ora drinkware products.

Color is crucial! We've stepped up the silk screen process and can offer multi-color silk screen!

Stop trying to wrap your head around fitting a design within a small branding area and start wrapping your design around Ora drinkware instead!

See page 37 for more details

Every Ora product within our stainless steel collection arrives in an eco tuck-in box printed with a tonal circular pattern. Take advantage of our 4-color process and add your own twist to the standard box with a customizable sleeve or completely upgrade to our tube packaging!

Setup - $140.00 (c)
Run charge - $5.00 (c)

Deboss BrandPatch and BrandShield branding solutions integrate into the lid of all of our brand-new Trend Setter stainless steel bottles. You can then embed an NFC chip under the upgraded lid, providing a physical action that leads to a digital experience for the customer.

PACKAGING SOLUTIONS

It's not just premium drinkware, but packaging too! Ora drinkware products in our stainless steel collection arrive nestled safely in a standard eco tuck-in box. Not just any plain old box either, but one with a subtle tonal circular pattern printed using an eco-friendly soy based ink. All of our non-stainless bottles, come standard in a simple, yet understated recycled polypropylene pouch.
